January 2020

April 23rd – 24th 2020 at

Hotel Comwell, Karensmindevej 3, 5500 Middelfart, Denmark
(Train directly from Copenhagen Airport takes approx. 2 hours).

Filippo Aschieri received his Ph.D. in 2007 from Catholic University of Milano. Mme professor Anne Andronikof, Université Ouest, Nanterre, Paris was his international supervisor. Since 2009 he has worked together with Stephen Finn, University of Texas, Austin, who developed the Therapeutic Assessment (TA) method.

Filippo has presented the workshop as follows:

Therapeutic Assessment (TA, Finn, 2007) is a brief therapeutic intervention based on the integration of testing and therapeutic techniques. Tests are used to gauge insights on the psychological and personality functioning of clients, therapeutic techniques include common factors (such as collaborative communication, active listening, mirroring, etc) combined with specific interventions developed by TA (such as the collection of assessment questions, the use of extended inquiries, the use of assessment interventions, the ordering of information in the summary and discussion session). TA promotes clients' change based on the accurate understanding of the sources of their problems.

The 2-days workshop is sponsored by Therapeutic Assessment Institute (www.therapeuticassessment.com). It is an introductory training in TA of adults, and will follow this schedule:

Day 1

Therapeutic Assessment: theories, steps & research findings

The collection of assessment questions (theory and video)

The administration of standardized measures: a focus on the extended inquiry with Rorschach and projective measures (theory, videos, exercises)

Discussion

Day 2

The assessment intervention session: a focus on the Rorschach and projective measures (theory and video)

Planning intervention sessions with the Rorschach and projective measures (exercises)

Discussing assessment findings with clients (theory and video)

Questions and feedbacks

Language: easily understandable English.
